

DICKER & DANE

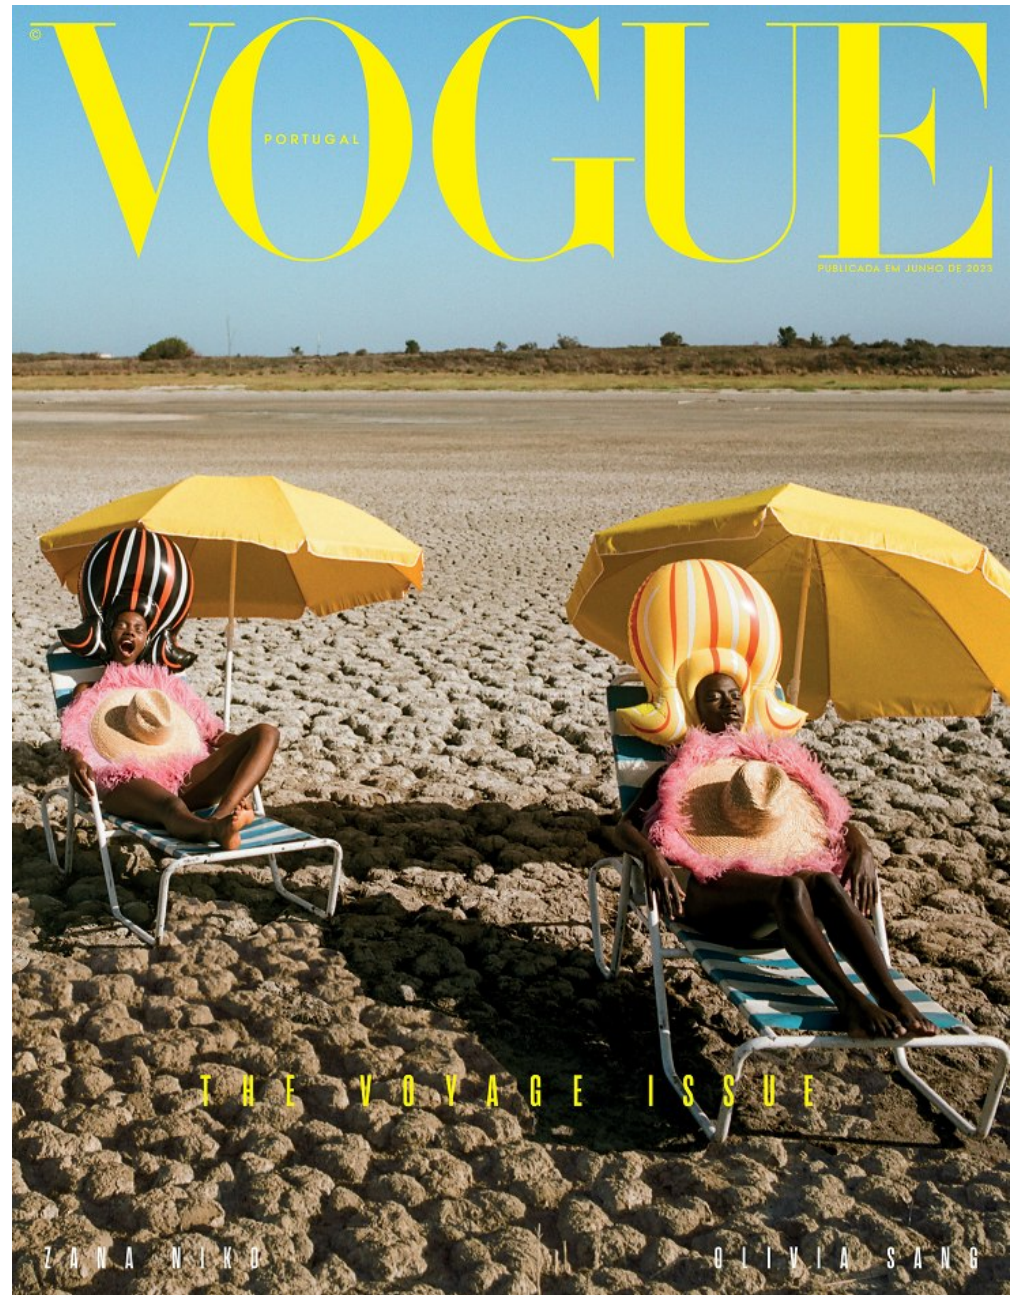

Armand Dicker & Anthony Dane are more than a creative duo, they represent what deep collaboration means in the best sense. Having come from different creative training; Anthony in film-making and direction, Armand in fashion design and styling, they have discovered in their journeys that creative expression is not a siloed stream of making but powerful and visionary when brought together to make extraordinary images, thus a booking with the duo is a booking for one creative talent; Dicker&Dane.
